

u3a IGNEOUS BAND

IGNEOUS (formerly Last Chance Band), is a gathering of u3a friends who share not only their love of music, but also the years of life and experience that have shaped them as musicians. Membership isn't something one applies for—it's something passed on, offered as an invitation to join the circle.

Every Wednesday evening, you'll find the band rehearsing at the Shado Centre in Saltash, filling the room with familiar rhythms, laughter, and the timeless joy of making music together.

With a few changes to the line-up, the band has grown beyond its roots as a pure Blues outfit, finding new life as a covers band that now blends the spirit of Blues with the energy of Rock and the familiarity of Pop classics.

The band has performed at various venues over the last twelve months, switching easily between pub gigs, outdoor events, and private bookings for weddings, birthdays, etc. The band can be booked to bring live music to community groups, local events, pubs, clubs, weddings, and festivals.

We were recently asked to play at a "Relay for Life" cancer charity event where over £80K was raised over the two days.

We played at an event in Wilcove where many u3a members from the Torpoint u3a group attended. Feedback from the evening reads – "Cracking night at the village hall last night. I haven't danced so much for years! Thank you to Igneous" - "It was a fantastic evening. Great musicians and lovely to see lots of people up dancing. Looking forward to their next event in the village hall" - "It was a fantastic evening and we will be booking them again soon"

The band's musical tastes are as diverse as their set list, but their heart lies in the golden years of the 1960s through to the early 2000s. While not every tune may be instantly familiar, their repertoire carries something for everyone—from the jangling melodies of The Searchers to the heavy riffs of Black Sabbath, and countless gems that shaped the soundtrack of those decades in between.

Meet the familiar faces who make up Igneous. Behind the drum kit is Al Tout, keeping the heartbeat steady. Jeff Boyd brings the fire on lead guitar. Sharing guitar duties and vocals is Dave Jordan, and on bass, and often taking the lead vocal, is Brian George.
